20 WAYS TO
#LIVETHELANGUAGE
THIS FALL!

MUSIC
Listen to hip hop, rock, whatever moves you!

PODCASTS
Find your favorite authors, activists...anyone who inspires you.

NEWS
Catch up on events of the world online or stream it!

MOVIES & POPCORN
Make popcorn and settle in for a movie. What new words can you pick up?

MUSEUMS
Check out an art or natural history museum -- you’ll likely find exhibits from around the world. Culture AND language in one place!

COOKING AND BAKING
Find an authentic recipe from where your language is spoken -- written in the language -- and try your hand at making something delicious for your family and friends.

BOOKS
Read a story or book originally written in the language you’re learning -- it’s almost sure to be better than the translation!

#TRENDING
Follow the latest trends and pop culture by picking up a magazine from a place where your language is spoken -- or follow them on your favorite social media platform.

CHATROOMS

SPEAK
Find an online, language-exchange partner and take turns in each language. Who knows? You could make a lifelong friend!

EAT
Have a conversation with someone who uses your language in their work. Faith leaders, nurses, first responders and flight attendants are experts who use language skills every day.

INTERVIEW
Create a presentation about a place where your language is spoken and share it at your library, community center, even other classes at school. Share some language while you’re at it!

VLOG
Start a vlog to document your growth in speaking the language. Who could you inspire?

WRITE
Feeling creative? Put pen to paper and write a poem, haiku or song in your language.

DRAW
Got a story to tell? Draw a cartoon, manga or graphic novel, and use your language to make your characters come to life!

TRAVEL
Plan a vacation to a place where your language is spoken. Pack your passport!

DECOARATE
Ready for an even bigger step? Study abroad for a semester -- or even a year! Gear up for a world of possibilities!
