16:10:54 From Dinar Alidina to Everyone:

How many students are enrolled in Spanish 2 weeks camp?

16:11:07 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Generally, if campers want to listen to music, they can listen to either instrumental or language-appropriate music on a music player that cannot connect to the internet or play games (so a CD player or mp3 player that is "dumb")

16:11:10 From Faith Hindman to Everyone:

First time parent here. Just wondering how many of the French village students are on the younger end? Mine is 9 and I wondered if she will have lots of company (I think the age range for her session is 8-14?). Just looking for some reassurance in terms of if there is a good amount of kids her age. Thank you!

16:12:29 From Danny Johnson to Everyone:

CLVFinance@cord.edu

16:12:29 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

16:13:14 From jeffwofford to Everyone:

To whom should the check be made?

16:13:34 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Cabins are generally not heated, but it's usually pretty warm overnight in the summer. I think that two light blankets or one light blanket and one medium blanket is generally sufficient

16:13:39 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Nicole Ellis (she/her)(Direct Message):

Are you replying to the chat questions, or should I jump in to help?

16:13:41 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

16:17:37 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

No previews of the store are available. Sorry!

16:17:56 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Choosing your name refers to choosing a "new name" that is culturally appropriate for the language like Elfrieda (my name at Waldsee), Kenji at Mori no Ike (one of our hosts), or Diana at El Lago del Bosque (one of our Spanish deans). We'll have lists of names to pick from, or if they have a name they love that isn't listed and isn't already being used in the village, they can use that

16:17:56 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Tessa, the Village dean is noted in the welcome letter you received.

16:17:56 From Rachel Lee to Everyone:

can we tour together with our villager at time of drop off ??

16:17:56 From Rachel Ramstad to Everyone:

would funds sent for use during travel also be used for the mid-session activities?

16:18:26 From Andrew W to Everyone:

What is the phone procedure?

16:18:26 From Jennifer Vincent to Everyone:

Does a camper "choose a name" prior to arrival, or is this something they choose after they check in?

16:18:28 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Campers will be responsible for incidental expenses and laundry expenses during their mid-session outing but all meals will be provided and all activity expenses (like a state park entrance fee) will be covered

16:18:29 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

$15 to $20 per week recommended for spending

16:18:34 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Jenny, your villager may bring music in the Village's language (e.g., Swedish) as long as the playing device does not also transmit (e.g., playlist on a cell phone).

16:18:35 From Kathryn Larkins to Everyone:

It seems campers had to indicate chosen name on the medical form? are the lists available now?

16:18:36 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Campers choose a name at check in

16:18:46 From Andrew to Everyone:

Should we have received the welcome letter for the German camp by now? I am asking because we have not received it yet.

16:19:09 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Kathryn, the chosen name is for those returning, with a name from a previous summer. Those who are first timers will choose a name upon arrival.

16:19:10 From Candace Kretchmar to Everyone:

The request on the medical form is just in case they already know their name, but is not required.

16:19:13 From Jennifer Vincent to Everyone:

Are campers allowed to bring books published in English to read during free-time?

16:19:32 From Karen Winter to Everyone:

Can you send a link for the trip mate insurance?

16:19:35 From Anne Dymek to Everyone:

will they be asked to wear masks?

16:19:39 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Campers will hand over their cell phones during check in to the village, and if they are 4 week villagers, they will get them back for a few hours at the halfway point (along with the charger). They'll be held in a locked safe in the camp office while not in camper's possession

16:19:42 From Matthew Huggins to Everyone:

(1) what was answer re bringing an English-Target Language dictionary? (2) may students bring reading in English [ie, when full immersion gets overwhelming] (3) transportation ques: worried about flight delays given overall flight chaos in US this summer -- assuming that we may arrive the next day if flights cancelled

16:19:45 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Jennifer, only books in English about the target language/cultures.

16:19:48 From phone Les Burke to Everyone:

16:19:56 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

No need to send quarters, there is a change machine at the laundromat

16:19:58 From Danny Johnson to Everyone:

Greetings. We recommend sending your villager up with cash or a check to cover candy or clothing purchases. The amount would be based on the length of your session and your own financial situation. We covered that sweatshirts cost up to around $50.00 and there is a daily cap on the purchases they can make a day on candy or other snacks.

16:20:04 From Mira Rengachary to Everyone:

Are at-home covid tests fine?

16:20:08 From Jess Clayton to Everyone:

16:20:25 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Dictionaries can be useful, particularly for credit villagers, but not necessary when surrounded by lots of fluent and native speakers!

16:20:27 From Dinar Alidina to Everyone:

How many students are so for 2 weeks campers cell phones will be taken away? We won't be able to contact them?

16:21:03 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

can they bring english books

16:21:05 From Andrew to Everyone:

Can the welcome letters be emailed if we don't receive them?

16:21:16 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

We are an unplugged program, so they will not have their phones while in program (except for four week campers at the halfway point). If you need to reach them in an emergency, you can always contact the village office--and if they need to be in touch with you, we will make that connection happen!

16:21:18 From Emilia to Everyone:

Will we be notified that the buses arrived to the villages safely?

16:21:32 From jenniferwingate to Everyone:

What is the process for older campers that are driving themselves to camp?

16:21:54 From Sandy to Everyone:

16:21:55 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

The insurance link and code are at the bottom of this page:
<http://www.concordialanguagevillages.org/youth-dates-and-rates/paying-your-bill/cancellation-policies>

16:21:55 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

English books outside of primary religious texts like the Bible are "contraband" in the village, but could be held in the camp office and will be returned after 16:22:03 From howardzellman to Everyone:

You mention that medication needs to be in original containers, is that the same for vitamins and supplements?

16:22:10 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@jwykoff, villagers are housed by gender and age group. If you have a cabinmate request, you can note that in the CampMinder account. CLVregister@cord.edu can help, too.

16:22:33 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

16:22:50 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

16:24:59 From jenniferwingate to Everyone:

@Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen, What time should he arrive?

16:25:15 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

16:25:15 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

Arrival is between 1-5

16:25:26 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

I'm afraid no scheduled laundry for 2 weekers, but if there's a laundry emergency we'll figure it out. They will also have clothes lines outside the cabin for washing a swimsuit in the sink of the cabin

Suitcase and carry-on is fine for our buses.

16:26:32 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

No limit on multiple suitcases, many campers bring a duffle + roller suitcase

16:26:52 From Katherine Boone to Everyone:

16:27:11 From Sabah Alidina to Everyone:

Ms. Connell what is your email?

16:27:19 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

16:27:35 From Sabah Alidina to Everyone:

@Kathryn, sheets. Sleeping bags are not allowed, per safety regulations. The only exception is the French Les Voyageurs wilderness program, where a sleeping bag is allowed.

16:28:47 From Sandy to Everyone:

My son's name is culturally appropriate if spelled differently. Can he use that version of his own name at camp?

16:28:55 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Care package items like glow sticks, face paints, nail polish, cards, and temp tattoos are very popular, but please take a look at the list of items they cannot receive in the parent handbook-- everything on the contraband list + food items

@Birgit, it depends on each site, but generally 8-13.

16:29:58 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Campers can't sleep in a zipped sleeping bag in a permanent structure, but could use a sleeping bag as a blanket

16:30:12 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Sandy, yes.

16:30:15 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Embroidery kit instructions should be mostly fine if it's just a pamphlet

If my name is already from the target language could I keep it?

16:33:00 From Shelley Bawiec to Everyone:

Can parents have a tour when dropping their kids off?

16:33:10 From Laura Dassrath to Everyone:

@jason they will learn! I attended a language camp for 5 years, and my first year I didn't know any of the target language.

16:33:18 From Tessa Simon to Everyone:

I'm in my Camp In Touch account, but there is no welcome letter. Is the Camp In Touch account the same as the My Village account?

16:33:37 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Hi Tessa--please email me about this and I'll check on this--Clvregister@cord.edu

16:33:45 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

Parents have a chance to tour outside areas of the village when they arrive, yes. Because of Covid, we ask parents not to go in buildings .

16:33:59 From Shelley Bawiec to Everyone:

Is there a camp blog so that we can see what our campers are up to?

16:34:07 From Megan Winter to Everyone:

Are we able to help them set up their bed/sleeping area?

16:34:08 From Beverly Rothermel to Everyone:

i don't know where my My Village account is

16:34:10 From Dinar Alidina to Everyone:

Why the transportation charges different for the Air travelers and the bus transportation just because of the hotel accommodation or is also because the distance it different as well?

16:34:12 From Emily Patrick to Everyone:

I have a question about mask types: are cloth masks okay, or do they need paper masks? Also, is it necessary for them to wear N95 or KN95 masks?

16:34:19 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Shelley, families will be allowed in designated areas of the Village. It depends on the specific site and the safety considerations at the time.

16:34:26 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

16:34:26 From Maureen's iPhone to Everyone:

@emily N95 or K95 masks are highly recommended but not required

16:34:57 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

About 50% of our campers use transportation services, so lots will be dropped off by family and lots will be taking transportation services

16:35:06 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

Here's the contact information again:

16:35:20 From Jill to Everyone:

Can I bring a book with some translations from English to the target language?

16:35:21 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

@Shelley There is a Google drive folder for each village where staff will post pictures from the village every few days.

16:35:29 From Emily Patrick to Everyone:

Candace: thank you. Are cloth masks allowed?

16:35:42 From Megan Winter to Everyone:

If kids want to take pictures of their time there, can they bring a digital camera (as long as it isn't a phone)?

16:35:47 From Karen Winter to Everyone:

I have a question about masks. The instructions say 2-3 disposable masks per day, for the entire camp. My student is doing the month-long camp. 90 masks seems a bit--excessive?

16:35:56 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

Are translation dictionaries allowed? I'm bringing books in Spanish but I don't understand all of the words

16:36:10 From Shelley Bawiec to Everyone:

@amanda, thank you, is that link for the google drive in our My Village page?

16:36:10 From Rachel Sindelar to Everyone:

Does the camp have a partnership with local hotels for a possible discount? Our family will be staying in Bemidji the night before pick up and would like some suggestions for lodging. Thank you!

16:36:18 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Digital cameras are great! They should have access to a charge them as needed

16:37:03 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

there are plugs

16:37:17 From Candace Kretchmar to Everyone:

@emily So long as masking is happening not as part of an exposure to a positive case, in which case, we do require a higher quality mask.

16:37:18 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

not at every bed

16:37:44 From NoelleNetz to Everyone:

Are masks required

16:37:46 From Marsha Storbakken to Everyone:

16:38:00 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

yes, they are bunks

16:38:34 From Sasha to Everyone:

Packing questions for Les Voyageurs 3-week camp: 1) How long is the canoe trip itself? The website wasn't clear about it for each length of Voyageurs camp. :-) 2) Do the 3-week kids need to bring a passport? (Will they reach the Canadian border?) 3) Is a wheeled duffle okay, given that it will need to travel on a canoe? Should it fit into a dry sack? 4) Do they need 3 weeks worth of clothes or will there be a laundry opportunity? 5) A pocket knife is listed as an optional but recommended item. Is a fixed blade camp knife permitted? I presume you have a blade length rule. :-) 6) A fanny pack is also listed as optional but recommended. What is the purpose of this if they are also expected to have a day pack? Just so I know if it's worth buying one/how big, etc. Thank you!

16:38:34 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

how many people to a cabin and how are we grouped? (4-week HS credit)

16:38:39 From Veronica Apen to Everyone:

Are the letter grades (A, B, C...) or Pass/Fail??

16:38:57 From Renae (Raiha's parent) to Everyone:

Could you handle special education for college credit-- ie. adapting assignments/expectations etc. Not for this year, but for next year? I have enrolled her THIS summer to give her a leg up since she will be taking gen ed Spanish this fall.

16:38:59 From Megan Davies (NC) to Everyone:

How much access do they have to showers? Can they shower every day?

16:39:03 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

@shelley Link to photo folder above!

16:39:03 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

16:39:05 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Sasha, please email clvregister@cord.edu for details on Voyageur packing list!

16:39:07 From Clara to Everyone:

Can I bring a portable cassette player

16:39:28 From Darren Pearson to Everyone:

Hi! Are masks required? Thanks!

16:39:31 From Kari Speer to Everyone:

On average, what percentage of the credit villagers go on to participate in the virtual credit session offered throughout the school year?

16:39:34 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

The standard is that we grade on a letter grade basis, we may be able to arrange p/f on request

16:39:35 From Rachel Ramstad to Everyone:

what is the grading structure? (4wk HS japanese)

16:39:44 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Elizabeth - there is no homework for any session outside of high school credit

16:39:52 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Rachel, there are a number of hotels and resorts in the area. If you reserve at Candlewood Suites and mention Concordia Language Villages, part of your money goes to our Bemidji Area Friends scholarship fund.

16:40:06 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Portable casset players should be fine!

16:40:21 From Warner Reid to Everyone:

Would my camper be allowed to bring a single pair of dumbbells?

16:40:22 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

About how often are we going swimming?

16:40:34 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Generally shower access is available every day outside of our Hackensack location

16:40:35 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

can you bring books in english

16:40:38 From Jill to Everyone:

Are translation dictionaries allowed?

16:40:51 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Swimming varies on weather and lifeguard availability, more likely every other day than every day

16:41:00 From Marsha Storbakken to Everyone:

do you guys have a pool there

16:41:06 From Lisa Olson to Everyone:

Specifically for the Chinese camp located in Callaway, MN, do you have recommendations for local hotels, just as you do in Bemidji if we arrive the night before the camp?

16:41:07 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Books in English outside of a religious text are not allowed, but a dictionary is fine!

16:41:13 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Marsha - no pool, but a great lake!

16:41:28 From Veronica Apen to Everyone:

is the lake safe for swimming?

16:41:39 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

A small pair of dumbbells should be fine if they work with your travel situation

16:41:50 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Veronica - absolutely safe!

16:42:41 From Megan Davies (NC) to Everyone:

Conflicting responses on books in English. Some CVL staff saying that books in English about target culture is OK; another response says only religious texts.

16:42:45 From Shimul Andersson to Everyone:

How many kids to a cabin?

16:42:55 From Tessa Simon to Everyone:

Are electrolytes considered medications or can my 16-year-old keep them with her and take them when she wants?

16:42:57 From Veronica Apen to Everyone:

Will Concordia be posting pictures during camp?

16:43:00 From Shannon Stark to Everyone:

Confirming 4 week attendees only get to do laundry one time? Or, can they do it as needed

16:43:04 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

Usually 10-12 per cabin

16:43:16 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

I will defer to program staff on the book question--some villages are more strict than others. Please email so I can look up your specific program

16:43:25 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

can you speak english

16:43:29 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Veronica - photos are posted at concordialanguagevillages.org/photos several times throughout the week

16:43:32 From Andrew W to Everyone:

Are the cabins age targeted?

16:43:35 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

concordialanguagevillages.org/photos for photo updates!

16:43:42 From Shelley Bawiec to Everyone:

Just to confirm, the email access that we have is one way only, correct. If our child wants to "write" to us, it need to be a postmarked letter?

16:43:48 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

Cabins are by age and gender

16:43:51 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Shelley - correct

16:43:52 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

4 week attendees will have the chance to do laundry once but can do handwash in the bathroom sink for things like swimsuits

16:43:53 From Laura Dassrath to Everyone:

There is really not a lot of down time for reading honestly.

16:43:53 From Karen Winter to Everyone:

Student is doing the 4-week Spanish credit course. Will students get a language proficiency rating, using the CEFR system or some other system? Or just grades?

16:44:04 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

@Sasha, I can get you more specific answers on Voyageurs. Can you message your email directly to me, please?

16:44:19 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Campers do not have access to the email portal, we recommend sending pre-addressed stamped envelopes or postcards

16:44:20 From Andrew W to Everyone:

So campers will be in cabins with there gender and people close to there age

16:44:35 From Keipp Talbot to Everyone:

will there be vegetarian meal options?

16:44:36 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Andrew, that is correct.

16:44:51 From Heather Vick to Everyone:

Yes! cabins are by gender and age

16:44:51 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

what are the age range for the cabins

16:44:53 From Tanya Yatsunenکو to Everyone:

Is it possible to share the origin of campers at least by state? My kid doesn't know anyone

16:45:00 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Yes, lots of vegetarian meal options--though please indicate that in your campdoc forms!

16:45:02 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Keipp - any special dietary requirements should be noted on your health form

16:45:16 From Rosanna Imholte to Everyone:

16:45:18 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Hi Tanya, you can email me for specific information, clvregister@cord.edu

16:45:27 From Katherine Boone to Everyone:

What does it mean that showers "Generally shower access is available every day outside of our Hackensack location" does this mean the cabins don't have showers?

16:45:55 From jenniferwingate to Everyone:

What if your camper recently had Covid?

16:45:57 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

We only had time to get the tests from the government... @Rosanna sorry

16:46:03 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Karen, the high school credit program provides a letter grade, percentage grade, course framework and written summary at the end of the session.

16:46:07 From Rachel Ramstad to Everyone:

PCR test 72 hrs ahead of time?

16:46:11 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Some cabins have attached bathrooms, some have a short walk to the bathroom/shower facility. Hackensack has more limited shower availability but also has a lovely sauna + lake bath option

16:46:48 From Matthew Huggins to Everyone:

Since we will be traveling, is it possible to upload results from a phone?

16:46:50 From Rachel Ramstad to Everyone:

will you test ids again at camp?

16:46:54 From Tom Talbot to Everyone:

If Covid positive and recovered within past 90 days, is testing required?

16:47:02 From Gai Cole, Emergency Medicine to Everyone:

Can you please answer this question posted earlier? The instructions say 2-3 disposable masks per day, for the entire camp. My student is doing the month-long camp. 90 masks seems a bit--excessive?

16:47:08 From Karen Winter to Everyone:

I can get a PCR test easily, but the turnaround time on results varies from 12 hours to 5 days. What do you want me to do if we don't have results in time?

16:47:16 From Rosanna Imholte to Everyone:

Please repeat where to upload test results

16:47:23 From Nathan to Everyone:

What is the policy on masks while at camp and during the time spent at the university.

16:47:30 From Veronica Apen to Everyone:

Does the camp store have masks in case the camper runs out?

16:48:17 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

@Sasha, Off site canoe trip is 10 days. No passport needed for this trip. A wheeled duffle is fine. There is not an opportunity to do laundry during the program. All knives will be taken to start and they will take a 'test' to demonstrate responsible use. I'll have to inquire about blade length. The fanny pack is intended as a day pack. Not required. A small backpack would be fine :-)

16:48:32 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

Is there a specific reason why the packing list includes both reusable and disposable masks?

16:48:34 From Avery Layson to Everyone:

do you test the students again upon arrival at camp?

16:48:34 From Veronica Apen to Everyone:

Do all campers need their US Passport??

16:48:52 From Dinar Alidina to Everyone:

16:49:06 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Veronica, no.

16:49:06 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Veronica, campers do not need an actual passport - we provide a camp version

16:49:07 From Jason Fatz to Everyone:

do you need a covid test before they come to camp

16:49:08 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Only campers in specific Voyager programs will need their US passport! Just your CLV passport, and if you lose that we will have more at camp

16:49:09 From Cal's iPhone to Everyone:

Also is the camp supportive of queer campers? As far as trans campers who may experience discrimination from others campers?

16:49:31 From jwykoff to Everyone:

Does Sjolunden have saunas?

16:49:35 From Amanda Fie Hand to Everyone:

@Veronica, campers do not need their US passport unless they are traveling to Canada with our Voyageurs program.

16:52:09 From Renae (Raiha's parent) to Everyone:

So masks are worn all the time?

16:52:16 From Mark 健治・けんじ・Kenji Chen to Everyone:

@Anne, please plan to wear a mask when dropping off and picking up your child.

16:52:16 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Snacks are not allowed to be sent--food in cabins attracts our forest friends inside

16:52:36 From Tabitha Crain to Everyone:

@Tricia ...No snacks at all?

16:52:37 From Tanya Yatsunenko to Everyone:

sorry, I missed it earlier - can we send emails to campers?

16:52:47 From Tricia Connell she/her to Everyone:

Daily usage meds should be sent at the start of the program, if anything is missed it can be mailed to the village to be checked in to the health center

16:52:51 From Nicole Ellis (she/her) to Everyone:

@Tanya, you can send emails through your MyVillage account

16:52:53 From Dinar Alidina to Everyone:
