6. Describing People, Places, Things

Journal your own experiences, including the date, where you were, with whom you spoke and what you expressed.

I can describe using one or two words.

I can describe using short sentences.

I can describe using many adjectives.

I can use a variety of descriptors in several long sentences.

I can give precise and detailed descriptions of paragraph length.