

Mafia Criminal Elected Mayor of 2004 Hometown

City Council Interviews

Judge: Luke

Reporter: What do you think about your job?

Luke: I like this job. I never been a judge, but I will become experienced.

Reporter: Are you happy?

Luke: Yes, I'm very happy because I will get a lot of money.

Reporter: What exactly do you do?

Luke: I think if someone does something he or she mustn't do, then I will decide if he or she is guilty or innocent.

Mayor Kevin says he's more than just a pretty face.

Sheriff: Brian

Reporter: What do you think about your job?

Brian: I think that my job is very important for Hometown and I like it very much.

Reporter: What are you doing now?

Brian: Now, I'm writing the legal system.

Reporter: How do you want punish criminals?

Brian: I will think about it later.

Former Treasure Candidate: Steve

Reporter: Are you unhappy that you lost in the election?

Steve: No because I think Frank is a good treasure. I'm unhappy because I think don't think Kevin is a good mayor.

Reporter: How are your feelings?

Steve: I'm happy for Frank.

Reporter: What are you doing now?

Steve: I going to go to the chamber of commerce to change my work.

Reporter: What do you think about the winners?

Steve: I'm thinking Frank is good, but Kevin isn't the best person for mayor.

The Homie is Here!

By Mandy

Hometown was introduced to the Homie yesterday. The bank opened and people recieved fifty Homies. The Homie is our money to buy things in Hometown. You need it to purchase something to eat or something to drink. For your work in Hometwon, you will be paid more Homie. Please spend your Homie. It is not wise to keep your Homie. What else do you have to spend it on?
