

Naomi is the New Mayor!

Hometown cheers first female Mayor

By Bridget

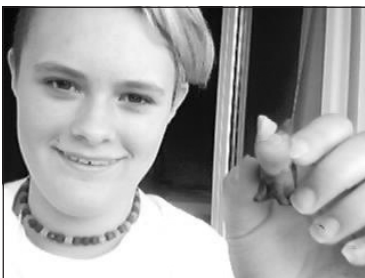

The election was exciting and all the races were extremely close. Although chances were even, the Mayor, Treasurer, Judge, and Sheriff have been chosen without repeating the election, which was well contested. The exit polls showed tight races. There was a tie between Leif and Brit, yet it turned out to be Leif's success. Woody was doing very well, he won by 100%. Marilyn and Ethan, candidates for judge, both showed that justice is important to them, but villagers chose Ethan. Ernie, Leah, and Naomi were all candidates for mayor. They had a tight race. At first Leah was leading with one more vote than Naomi, but the City Council announced that Naomi won the election. With the counselors taking part in the election, by having the right to vote or abstaining from voting, the election was fair and without any problems.

Naomi

Pictures from Hometown!

Ex-treasurer candiadte Marilyn shows off her cat sculpture from an activity Friday morning.

Marv reacts expressively to villagers speaking German in Hometown.

Tune in for the Hometown News television broadcast tonight (or tomorrow). Maybe.